19. Sales of taxable activity or transfer of ownership.-- In the case of sale or transfer of ownership of a business which provides taxable services to another person as an ongoing concern, any sales tax chargeable on taxable services or part thereof shall be accounted for and paid by the person to whom such sale is made or ownership is transferred.

20. Estate of deceased person.-- The tax liability of a deceased registered person under this Act shall be the first charge on his estate in the hands of his successors.

21. Estate in bankruptcy.-- (1) If a registered person is declared bankrupt, the tax liability under this Act shall pass on to the estate in bankruptcy if it continues to operate the business.

(2) If tax liability is incurred by an estate in bankruptcy, the tax is deemed to be a current expenditure in the operations of the estate in bankruptcy and shall be paid before the claims preferred by other creditors are settled.

22. Liability for payment of tax in the case of private companies or business enterprises. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Ordinance 1984 (No. XLVII of 1984), where any private company or business enterprise is wound up and any tax chargeable on the company or business enterprise, whether before, or in the course, or after its liquidation, in respect of any tax period cannot be recovered from the company or business enterprise, every person who was an owner of, or partner in, or director of, the company or business enterprise during the relevant period shall, jointly and severally with such persons be liable for the payment of such tax.

23. Assessment of Tax.— (1) Where on the basis of any information acquired during an audit, inquiry, inspection or otherwise, an officer of the SRB, not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner SRB is of the opinion that a registered person has not paid the tax due on taxable services provided by him or has made short payment, the officer shall make an assessment of sales tax actually payable by that person and shall impose a penalty and charge default surcharge in accordance with sections 43 and 44.

(2) No order under sub-section (1) shall be made by an officer of the SRB unless a notice to show cause is given to the person in default within five years from the end of the tax period to which the order relates specifying the grounds on which it is intended to proceed against him and the said officer shall take into consideration the representation made by such person and provide him with an opportunity of being heard if the person so desires.

(3) Any order under sub-section (1) shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of the show cause notice or within such extended period as the officer of the SRB may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, fix provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed sixty days.

(4) In computing the period specified in sub-section (3), any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or proceedings under section 65 or the time taken through adjournment by the person <sup>33</sup>[***] shall be excluded.

33. The words "not exceeding thirty days" omitted vide Sindh Finance Act, 2014.

(5) An order passed by an officer of the SRB under sub-section (1) may be further amended as may be necessary when on the basis of information acquired during an audit, inquiry, inspection or otherwise, the officer of the SRB is satisfied that:

(i) any sales tax has been under-assessed or assessed at too low a rate; or

(ii) any taxable service provided by the person has escaped assessment.

(6) The Commissioner SRB may amend, or further amend, any order passed under sub-sections (1) or (5), if he considers that the order is erroneous or prejudicial to the interest of sales tax.

(7) Sub-sections (2), (3) and (4) shall be applicable to any order passed under sub-sections (5) or (6).

(8) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, Board may prescribe thresholds, parameters, standards and basis for assessment of supply value and the assessment of tax.

(5) It shall not be reasonable for a person to believe that another person is registered under this Act if that other person is not on the list placed on the web site of the Board.

(6) It shall be reasonable for a person to believe that another person is registered under this Act if that other person is on the list placed on the web site of the Board.

24A. Voluntary Registration.-- (1) A person who carries on an economic activity but is not required to be registered may apply for voluntary registration at any time.

(2) If a person who is not required to be registered applies for voluntary registration, the Board may register the person if the Board is satisfied that:

- (a) the person is making, or will provide, services that are taxable services if the person were registered;
- (b) the person has a place of business at which he carries on an economic activity;
- (c) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person will keep proper records and file regular returns as prescribed under this Act; and

- (d) if the person has commenced carrying on an economic activity, the person has:
  - (i) kept proper records in relation to his economic activity; and
  - (ii) complied with his obligations under other taxation laws

<sup>34</sup>[24B.-- Compulsory Registration.-- (1) If an officer of the SRB is satisfied that a person is required to be registered under this Act and that the person has not applied for registration, the officer of the SRB shall, after such inquiry as he may deemed fit, register the person through an order to be issued in writing and such person shall be deemed to have registered from the date he became liable to registration.]

(2) No person may be registered compulsorily without being given an advance notice and an opportunity of being heard.

25. Suspension of registration.-- (1) Subject to sub-section (3),--

- (a) the Board may suspend the registration of a person if it believes that the person--
  - (i) is not entitled to be registered; or
  - (ii) has failed to comply with its obligations under this Act; and
- (b) the suspension of registration shall be effected by removing the name of the person from the list of registered persons published on the Board's web site.

(2) The Board shall give notice to a registered person stating the reasons for the suspension and the remedial actions required to be taken by the person in such time as may be specified in the notice.

(3) In case the Board is not satisfied with the response of the person or the remedial actions taken by him or does not receive any response in the specified time, the Board may suspend that person's registration.

(4) At any time within a period of sixty days of suspension, the Board may withdraw the suspension if it is satisfied with the remedial actions taken by the person.

(5) Where, after sixty days, the suspension has not been withdrawn, the Board may:

- (a) institute proceedings against the person in respect of the alleged non-compliance under this Act;
- (b) reinstate the person's registration; or
- (c) if neither of the actions in clauses (a) and (b) is done, cancel the person's registration.

25A. De-registration.-- (1) The Board or any officer of the SRB, authorized in this behalf, may subject to the rules, de-register a registered person or such class of registered persons not required to be registered under this Act.

(2) Where any person registered under this Act believes that he does not satisfy the requirements for registration in section 24, he may, in the manner and mode provided in the rules, make an application to the Board <sup>35</sup>[or any officer of the SRB, authorized by the Board in till the final decision in any proceedings including proceedings for assessment, appeal, revision, reference or petition, whichever is later.

(2) A person who is required to maintain any record or documents under this Act or any other law shall, as and when required by an officer of the SRB, not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner SRB, produce records or documents which are in his possession or control or in the possession or control of his agent; and where such records or documents have been stored as electronic data, he shall allow access to such officer and use of any machine on which such data is kept.

28. Audit Proceedings.-- (1) An officer of the SRB, not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner SRB, may, on the basis of the return submitted by a registered person or the records obtained under sub-section (2) of section 27 conduct an audit of such person once in a year.

Provided that in case the Commissioner SRB has any information showing that such registered person is involved in tax fraud or evasion of tax, he may authorize an officer of the SRB, not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner SRB, to conduct an inquiry or investigation under section 48 which may or may not be in addition to any audit carried out for the same period.

(2) Where the officer of the SRB decides to conduct an audit under subsection (1), he shall issue a notice of audit to the person informing him of the audit proceedings and direct him to produce any records or documents which such officer may require for conducting the audit.

(3) The officer of the SRB shall conduct a preliminary audit and issue an audit observation pointing out the contraventions of the Act or rules, as the case may be, and the amount of tax evaded therein, on the basis of scrutiny of such records. The registered person may, within a period of 21 days of the receipt of the audit observation, submit his point of view in writing.

(4) If, within the period prescribed in sub-section (3), no reply is received or the reply furnished by the registered person is found unsatisfactory, the officer of the SRB shall issue an audit report specifying the amount of tax or charge that has not been levied or has been short levied or any other violation of any provision of Act or rules made there under.

(5) After completion of the audit under this section or any other provision of law, the officer of the SRB, not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner SRB, may pass an order in accordance with the provisions of section 23 or section 47, as the case may be, imposing the correct amount of tax, charging default surcharge and imposing a penalty.

(6) Notwithstanding the penalties prescribed in section 43:

- (a) if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge voluntarily, whenever it comes to his notice, he shall, before receipt of notice of audit, file a revised return and shall deposit the amount short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge, in which case no penalty shall be recovered from him;
- (b) if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge during the audit, or at any time before issuance of show cause notice in lieu of the audit report, he shall file a revised return and shall deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 44, and twenty per cent of the penalty payable under section 43, in which case a show cause notice in lieu of the audit report will not be issued in the matter;

- (c) if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge after issuance of show cause notice, he shall file a revised return and shall deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 44, and fifty per cent of the penalty payable under section 43 and thereafter, the show cause notice, shall stand abated.

29. Special Audit by Chartered Accountants or Cost Accountants.-- (1) The Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint a Chartered Accountant as defined under Chartered Accountants Ordinance, 1961 (X of 1961) or a firm of Chartered Accountants or a Cost and Management Accountant within the meaning of the Cost and Management Accountants Act, 1966 (XIV of 1966) or a firm of Cost and Management Accountants, for conducting a special audit of the records of any registered person.

(2) Notwithstanding that the records of a registered person have been audited by an officer of the SRB appointed under section 34, the Board or a Commissioner SRB may direct an auditor appointed under sub-section (1) to audit the records of any registered person for the same period.

(3) An auditor appointed under sub-section (1), shall have the powers of an officer of the SRB under sections <sup>44</sup>[27, 48, 51 and 52].

Such person shall, further be liable, upon conviction by a Special Judge, to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year or fine which may extend to 100,000 rupees or with both.	52

44. Default Surcharge.-- (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 23, if a registered person does not pay the tax due or any part thereof, whether willfully or otherwise, in time or in the manner specified under this Act, rules or notifications issued there under, he shall, in addition to the tax due and any penalty under section 43, pay default surcharge at the rate mentioned below:-

- (a) the person liable to pay any amount of tax or charge, shall pay default surcharge at the rate of Inter-Bank Rate plus three per cent per annum of the amount of tax due; and
- (b) in case, the default is on account of tax fraud, the person who has committed tax fraud shall pay default surcharge at the rate of two per cent per month, of the amount of tax evaded, till such time the entire liability including the amount of default surcharge is paid.

(2) For the purpose of calculation of default surcharge, the period of default shall be reckoned from the sixteenth day of a month (following the due date of the tax period to which the default relates) to the day preceding the date on which the tax due is actually paid.

Explanation-- For the purpose of this section tax due does not include the amount of penalty.

45. Exemption from penalty and default surcharge.-- The Board may, <sup>59</sup>[***] and by a notification in the official Gazette, exempt any registered person or class of registered persons from payment of the whole or any part of the penalty and default surcharge imposed under sections <sup>60</sup>[43 and 44] subject to such conditions and limitations as may be specified in such notification or, as the case may be, special order.

46. Compounding of offences. -- Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provision of this Act, where any person has committed any offence warranting prosecution under this Act, the Government may, either before or after the institution of any proceedings for the prosecution of such offence, terminate the proceedings if such person pays the amount of tax due along with such default surcharge and penalty as is determined under the provisions of this Act.

47. Recovery of tax not levied or short-levied.-- (1) Where by reason of some inadvertence, error or miscalculation <sup>61</sup>[***] any tax or charge has not been levied or has been short-levied, the

(a) any tax or charge has not been paid or is, short paid, assessed or collected, the person liable to pay such tax shall be served with a notice within five years of such tax period, requiring him to show cause for non-payment of such tax;

(b) any amount of tax is refunded which is not due, the person obtaining such refund shall be served with a notice within five years of the receipt of such refund to show cause for such refund.]

(2) The officer of the SRB empowered in this behalf shall, after considering the objections of the person served with a notice to show cause under sub-section (1) <sup>63</sup>[or (1A)], determine the amount of tax or charge payable by him and such person shall pay the amount so determined.

(3) Any order under sub-section (2) shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of the notice to show cause or within such extended period as the officer of the SRB may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, fix, provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed sixty days.

(4) In computing the period specified in sub-section (3), any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or proceedings under section 65 or the time taken through adjournment by the petitioner <sup>64</sup>{***}shall be excluded.

(5) For the purpose of this section, the expression “relevant date” means the time of payment of tax or charge as provided under section 17.

48. Power to summon persons to give evidence and produce documents in inquiries under the Act.-- (1) Any officer of the SRB shall have the power to summon any person whose attendance he considers necessary either to tender evidence or to produce documents or any other thing in any audit, inquiry or investigation, which such officer is making for any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any person summoned under sub-section (1) shall be bound to attend either in person or by an authorised agent, as the officer of the SRB may direct.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1) and (2), a person who is exempted from personal appearance in a court under sections 132 and 133 of the Code of Civil Procedure (No.V of 1908), shall not be required to appear in person.

(4) Any inquiry or investigation before an officer of the SRB shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 of the Pakistan Penal Code (No. XLV of 1860).

49. Power to arrest and prosecute.-- (1) An officer of the SRB, not below the rank of a Commissioner SRB, or any other officer of equal rank authorised by the Board in this behalf, who on the basis of material evidence has reasonable cause to believe that any person has committed a tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act, may cause arrest of such person.

(2) All arrests made under this Act shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (No. V of 1898).

(3) Where the person suspected of tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act is a company, every director or officer of that company whom the officer of the SRB has reason to believe is personally responsible for actions of the company contributing the tax fraud or any offence warranting prosecution under this Act shall be liable to arrest;

Provided that any arrest under this sub-section shall not absolve the company from the liabilities of payment of tax, default surcharge and any penalty imposed under this Act.

50. Procedure to be followed on arrest of a person.-- (1) When an officer of the SRB arrests a person under section 49, he shall immediately intimate the fact of the arrest of that person to the Special Judge who may direct such officer to produce that person at such time and place and on such date as the Special Judge considers expedient and the officer shall act accordingly.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), any person arrested under this Act shall be produced before the Special Judge or, if there is no Special Judge within a reasonable distance, to the nearest Magistrate within twenty-four hours of such arrest, excluding the time necessary for the journey from the place of arrest to the court of the Special Judge or, as the case may be, of the Magistrate.

(3) When any person is produced under sub-section (2) before the Special Judge, the Special Judge may, on the request of such person, after perusing the record, if any and after giving the prosecution an opportunity of being heard, admit him to bail on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, or refuse to admit him to bail and direct his detention at such place as he deems fit:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall preclude the Special Judge from cancelling the bail of any such person at a subsequent stage if, for any reason, he considers such cancellation necessary, but before passing such order he shall afford such person an opportunity of being heard, unless for reasons to be recorded he considers that the affording of such opportunity shall defeat the purpose of this Act.

(4) When such person is produced under sub-section (2) before a Magistrate, such Magistrate may, after authorising his detention in such custody at such place and for such period as he considers necessary or proper for facilitating his earliest production before the Special Judge, direct his production before the Special Judge on a date and time to be fixed by him or direct such person to be forthwith taken to, and produced before, the Special Judge and he shall be so taken.

(5) Nothing in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) shall preclude the Special Judge or the Magistrate from remanding any such person to the custody of the officer of the SRB holding an inquiry against that person if such officer makes a request in writing to that effect, and the Special Judge or the Magistrate, after perusing the record, if any, and hearing such person, is of the opinion that for the completion of inquiry or investigation it is necessary to make such order:

Provided that in no case shall the period of such custody exceed fourteen days.

(6) When any person is arrested under this Act, the arresting officer of the SRB shall record the fact of arrest and other relevant particulars in the register specified in sub-section (10) and shall immediately proceed to inquire into the charge against such person and if he completes the inquiry within twenty-four hours of his arrest, excluding the time necessary for journey as aforesaid, he may, after producing such person before the Special Judge or the Magistrate, make a request for his further detention in his custody.

(7) While holding an inquiry under sub-section (6), the officer of the SRB shall exercise the same powers as are exercisable by an officer in charge of a police station under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (No. V of 1898), but such officer shall exercise such powers subject to the foregoing provisions of this section while holding an inquiry under this Act.

(8) If the officer of the SRB, after holding an inquiry as aforesaid, is of the opinion that there is no sufficient evidence or reasonable ground for suspicion against such person, he shall release him on his executing a bond, with or without sureties, and shall direct such person to appear, as and when required, before the Special Judge, and make a report to the Special Judge for the discharge of such person and shall make a full report of the case to his immediate superior.

(9) The Special Judge to whom a report has been made under sub-section (8) may, after the perusal of record of the inquiry, and hearing the prosecution, agree with such report and discharge the accused or, if he is of the opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceedings against such person, proceed with his trial and direct the prosecution to produce evidence.

(10) The officer of the SRB holding an inquiry under this section shall maintain a register to be called the "Register of Arrests and Detentions" in the prescribed form in which he shall enter the name and other particulars of every person arrested under this Act, together with the time and date of arrest, the details of the information received, the details of things, goods or documents, recovered from his custody, the name of the witnesses and the explanation, if any, given by him and the manner in which the inquiry has been conducted from day to day; and, such register or authenticated copies of its aforesaid entries shall be produced before the Special Judge, whenever such officer is so directed by him.

(11) After completing the inquiry, the officer of the SRB shall, as early as possible, submit to the Special Judge a complaint in the same form and manner in which the officer in charge of a police station submits a report, before a court.

(12) Any Magistrate of the first class may record any statement or confession during inquiry under this Act, in accordance with the provisions of section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (No. V of 1898).

51. Authorised officers to have access to premises, stocks, accounts and records.-- (1)

Any officer authorised in this behalf by the Board shall have free access to the business premises, registered office or any other place where any stocks, business records or documents required under this Act are kept or maintained by any registered person or a person liable for registration or whose business activities are covered under this Act or who may be required for any inquiry or investigation in any tax fraud committed by him or his agent or any other person; and such officer may, at any time, inspect the goods, stocks, records, data, documents, correspondence, accounts, statements, utility bills, bank statements, information regarding nature and sources of funds or assets with which his business is financed, and any other records or documents, including those which are required under any of the Federal, Provincial or local laws maintained in any form or mode and may take into his custody such records, statements, diskettes, documents or any part thereof, in original or copies thereof in such form as the authorised officer may deem fit against a signed receipt.

(2) The registered person, his agent or any other person specified in subsection (1) shall be bound to answer any question or furnish such information or explanation as may be asked by the authorised officer.

(3) All other Government departments, local bodies, autonomous bodies, corporations or such other institutions shall supply requisite information and render necessary assistance to the authorised officer in the course of inquiry or investigation under this section.

52. Obligation to produce documents and provide information.-- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act or any other law for the time being in force, any person required to maintain any record under the Act, shall, on demand by an officer of the SRB, not below the rank of a <sup>65</sup>[Assistant Commissioner] SRB, by notice in writing, as and when specified in the notice—

- (a) produce for examination, such documents or records which the officer of the SRB considers necessary or relevant to the audit, inquiry or investigation under the Act;
- (b) allow the officer of the SRB to take extracts from or make copies of such documents or records; and
- (c) appear before the officer of the SRB and answer any question put to him concerning the documents and records relating to the audit, investigation, or inquiry referred to in clause (a) above.

(2) An officer of the SRB conducting an audit, inquiry or, as the case may be, an investigation under the Act, may require in writing any person, department, company or organization to furnish such information as is held by that person, department, company or organization, which, in the opinion of the officer of the SRB, is relevant to such audit, inquiry or investigation.

(3) The Board may require, in writing, any person, department, company or organization, as the case may be, to provide any information or data held by that person, department, company or organization, which, in the opinion of the Board, is required for purposes of formulation of policy or administering or implementing this Act.

(4) Every person, department, company or organization shall furnish the information requisitioned by the Board or the officer of the SRB under subsection (2) or (3), within the time specified in the notice issued by the Board or, as the case may be, the officer of the SRB.

53. Searches under warrant.-- (1) Where any officer of the SRB has reason to believe that any documents or things which in his opinion, may be useful for, or relevant to, any proceedings under this Act are kept in any place, he may after obtaining a warrant from the Magistrate, enter that place and cause a search to be made at any time.

(2) The search made under sub-section (1) shall be carried out in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (No. V of 1898).

54. Posting of an officer of the SRB to business premises.-- (1) Subject to such conditions and restrictions, as it deems fit to impose, the Board may post an officer of the SRB to the premises of a registered person or class of such persons to monitor the provision of services by such registered person or persons.

65 . Substituted for the words “Deputy Commissioner” vide the Sindh Finance Act, 2013 (Sindh Act No. I of 2013).

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), if a Commissioner SRB, on the basis of material evidence, has reasonable cause to believe that a registered person is involved in evasion of sales tax or tax fraud, he may, by recording the reason in writing, post an officer of the SRB to the premises of such registered person to monitor provision of services by such person.

55. Revision by the Commissioner SRB.-- (1) The Commissioner SRB may, of his own motion or on an application made in writing by a registered person for revision, call for and examine the record of any proceeding under this Act in which an order has been passed by an officer of the SRB other than the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB.

(2) If after examining the record under sub-section (1), the Commissioner SRB is not satisfied with the legality or propriety of any order passed by an officer of the SRB, the Commissioner SRB may make such revision to the order as he may think fit.

(3) No order imposing or enhancing any penalty or fine requiring payment of a greater amount of sales tax than the originally levied amount shall be passed unless the person affected by such order has been given an opportunity of showing cause and of being heard.

(4) The Commissioner SRB shall not revise any order under sub-section (2) if:

- (i) an appeal under section 57 is pending or the matter has been referred to resolution under section 65.
- (ii) where an appeal against the order lies under section 57, the time within which such appeal may be made has not expired or the person has not waived his right of appeal;
- (iii) in the case of an application made by a person, the application has not been made within ninety days of the date on which on which such order was served on the person, unless the Commissioner SRB is satisfied that the person was prevented by sufficient cause from making the application within the time allowed;
- (iv) in the case where the Commissioner SRB has on his own motion called for and examined an order passed by a sub-ordinate officer, more than five years have lapsed from the date of the original order.

(5) No application for revision of an assessment shall be made under subsection (1) unless the amount of tax due under the assessment that is not in dispute has been paid by the taxpayer.

56. Revision by the Board.-- (1) The Board may, of its own motion, call for and examine the record of any departmental proceedings under this Act or the rules made there under for the purpose of satisfying itself as to the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed therein by an officer of the SRB other than the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB.

(2) If after examining the record under sub-section (1), the Board is not satisfied with the legality or propriety of any decision or order passed by an officer of the SRB, it may pass such order as it may think fit.

(3) No order imposing or enhancing any penalty or fine requiring payment of a greater amount of sales tax than the originally levied amount shall be passed unless the person affected by such order has been given an opportunity of showing cause and of being heard.

(4) No proceeding under this section shall be initiated in a case where an appeal under section 57 is pending or the matter has been referred to resolution under section 65.

(5) No order shall be made under this section after the expiry of five years from the date of the original decision or order of the sub-ordinate officer referred to in sub-section (1).

Chapter-IX

APPEALS

57. Appeals.-- (1) Any person, other than the Board or any of its officers, aggrieved by any decision or order passed under sections <sup>66</sup>[22, 23, 24B, 43, 44, 47, 68 or 76] by an officer of the SRB may, within thirty days of the date of receipt of such decision or order, prefer an appeal to the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB.

(2) An appeal under sub-section (1) shall—

- (a) be in the prescribed form;
- (b) be verified in the prescribed manner;
- (c) state precisely the grounds upon which the appeal is made;
- <sup>67</sup>(cc) in case the appellant desires to be heard through an agent or authorized representative in terms of section 67 or section 70, be accompanied with a Letter of Authorization, as prescribed;
- (d) be accompanied by the fee specified in sub-section (3); and
- (e) be lodged with the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB within the time set out in sub-section (4).

(3) The prescribed fee shall be —

- (i) where the appellant is a company, <sup>68</sup>[two] thousand rupees; or
- (ii) where the appellant is not a company, <sup>69</sup>[one thousand] rupees.

<sup>70</sup>[(4) An appeal under this section shall be preferred to the Commissioner (Appeals) within thirty days from the date on which the order or decision is served upon the appellant.]

(5) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may, upon application in writing by the appellant, admit an appeal after the expiration of the period specified in sub-section (4) if the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from lodging the appeal within that period.

58. Procedure in appeal.-- (1) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB shall give notice of the day fixed for the hearing of the appeal to the appellant and to the officer of the SRB against whose order the appeal has been made.

“(4) An appeal shall be preferred to the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB within thirty days of the following:-

- (a) where the appeal relates to any assessment or penalty including default surcharge, the date of service of the notice of demand relating to the said assessment or penalty including default surcharge, as the case may be; and
- (b) in any other case, the date on which the order to be appealed against is served.”

(2) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may adjourn the hearing of the appeal from time to time.

(3) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may, before the hearing of an appeal, allow an appellant to file any new ground of appeal not specified in the grounds of appeal already filed by the appellant where the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB is satisfied that the omission of the ground from the form of the appeal was not willful or unreasonable.

(4) The Commissioner (Appeals) may stay the recovery of any sales tax due by virtue of the decision or order being appealed against and any such order made by the Commissioner (Appeals) shall remain operative for no more than fifteen days during which period a notice shall be issued to the respondent and after hearing the parties, the order staying recovery may be confirmed, varied or vacated as the Commissioner (Appeals) deems fit but the stay order so confirmed or varied shall remain operative for no more than sixty days, including any period for which the recovery may have been stayed prior to the confirmation or variation of the stay order.

(5) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may, before disposing of an appeal call for such particulars as the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may require respecting the matters arising in the appeal or cause further inquiry to be made by the officer of the SRB.

59. Decision in appeal.-- (1) In disposing of an appeal lodged under section 57, the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may pass such order as he thinks fit, confirming, varying, altering, setting aside or annulling the decision or order appealed against.

(2) In deciding an appeal, the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may make such further inquiry as may be necessary provided that he shall not remand the case for denovo consideration.

(3) The Commissioner (Appeals) SRB shall not increase the amount of any tax payable by the appellant unless the appellant has been given an opportunity of showing cause against such increase.

(4) As soon as practicable after deciding an appeal, the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB shall serve his order on the appellant and the officer of the SRB who made the order appealed against.

(5) An order passed by the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB under sub-section <sup>71</sup>[(1)] shall be passed not later than one hundred and twenty days from the date of filing of appeal or within such extended period, not exceeding sixty days, as the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB may, for reasons to be recorded in writing fix.

(6) In computing the aforesaid time period, any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or proceedings under section 65 or the time taken through adjournment by the appellant <sup>72</sup>[***] shall be excluded.

<sup>73</sup>[(7) Where the Commissioner (Appeals) has not made an order under sub-section (1) before the expiration of the period prescribed under sub-section (5), read with sub-section (6), the Commissioner (Appeals) shall transfer the undecided appeal to the Appellate Tribunal which shall decide the undecided appeal as if it has been filed against the order of the Commissioner (Appeals):

(8) For the purposes of sub-section (7), any period during which the hearing of an appeal is adjourned on the request of the appellant shall be excluded in the computation of the period of four months.”

Provided that while transferring the un-decided appeal to the Appellate Tribunal, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall give due intimation, in this regard, to the appellant and his agent or authorized representative and also to the Chairman of the Board.

(8) While transferring the undecided appeal to the Appellate Tribunal, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall attach a report explaining the circumstances and reasons due to which the appeal could not be decided within the prescribed time.

60. Appointment of the Appellate Tribunal.-- (1) There shall be established an Appellate Tribunal to exercise the functions conferred on such Tribunal by this Act or the rules made thereunder.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal shall consist of a Chairperson and such other judicial and <sup>74</sup>[Technical member]s as are appointed by the Government having regard to the needs of the Tribunal.

(3) A person may be appointed as a Judicial Member of the Appellate Tribunal if the person –

<sup>75</sup>(a) who is or has been a Judge of the Sindh High Court or is or has been Judge of a District and Sessions Court with at least two years of service as a District and Sessions Judge;

(b) is below the age of sixty-five years.

(4) A person may be appointed as an <sup>76</sup>[Technical member] of the Appellate Tribunal if the person is an officer of the SRB/ FBR equivalent in rank to that of:

(a) a Commissioner (Appeals) SRB/ FBR having at least three years experience as Commissioner SRB; or

(b) a Commissioner SRB/FBR having at least five years experience as Commissioner SRB; and

(c) is below the age of sixty-five years;

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (4), the Government may, for <sup>77</sup>[five years] from the day this Act comes into effect, appoint any person who has worked for a minimum of three years:

(i) in the Federal Board of Revenue or Provincial Excise and Taxation Department in the rank not below the Bs.20 for 5 years in aggregate, or

(ii) as Collector of Sales Tax (Appeals) under sub-section (b) of section 30 of the Sales Tax Act 1990, for 3 years with service of at least 5 years in Bs. 20, as an Accountant Member of the Appellate Tribunal.

(6) The Government shall appoint a member of the Appellate Tribunal as Chairperson of the Tribunal and, except in special circumstances, the person appointed should be a judicial member.

In case of difference of opinion between the two Members deciding the appeal, the case shall be decided by the Chairman of the Board, acting as the referee Member of the bench.]

(7) The powers and functions of the Appellate Tribunal shall be exercised and discharged by Benches constituted from members of the Tribunal by the Chairperson of the Tribunal.

(8) Subject to sub-section (7), a Bench shall consist of not less than two members of the Appellate Tribunal and shall be constituted so as to contain an equal number of judicial and <sup>79</sup>[Technical member]s, or so that the number of members of one class does not exceed the number of members of the other class by more than one.

(9) The Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that all or any of the powers of the Appellate Tribunal shall be exercised by:

- (i) any one member; or
- (ii) more members than one, jointly or severally.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (7) and (8), the Chairperson may constitute as many Benches consisting of a single member as he may deem necessary to hear such cases or class of cases as the Government may by order in writing, specify.

(11) The Chairperson or other member of the Appellate Tribunal authorized, in this behalf by the Chairperson may, sitting singly, dispose of any case where the amount of tax or penalty involved does not exceed five million rupees.

(12) Subject to sub-section (10), if the members of a Bench differ in opinion on any point, the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority.

(13) If the members of a Bench are equally divided on a point, they shall state the point on which they differ and the case shall be referred by the Chairperson for hearing on that point to one or more other members of the Appellate Tribunal, and the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the members of the Tribunal who have heard the case including those who first heard it.

(14) If there are an equal number of members on the Appellate Tribunal, the Government may appoint an additional member for the purpose of deciding the case on which there is a difference of opinion.

(15) Subject to this Act, the Appellate Tribunal shall have the power to regulate its own procedure, and the procedure of Benches of the Tribunal in all matters arising out of the discharge of its functions including the places at which the Benches shall hold their sittings.

82. Inserted vide Sindh Finance Act, 2014.

(7) The Appellate Tribunal shall communicate its order to the taxpayer and the concerned officer of the SRB.

(8) Save as provided in section 63, the decision of the Appellate Tribunal on an appeal shall be final.

63. Reference to the High Court.-- (1) Within sixty days of the communication of the order of the Appellate Tribunal under section 62, the aggrieved person or any officer of the SRB not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner SRB, authorized by the Commissioner SRB may prefer an application in the prescribed form along with a statement of the case to the High Court, stating any question of law arising out of such order.

(2) The statement to the High Court referred to in sub-section (1), shall set out the facts, the determination of the Appellate Tribunal and the question of law, which arises out of its order.

(3) Where, on an application made under sub-section (1), the High Court is satisfied that a question of law arises out of the order referred to in subsection (1), it may proceed to hear the case.

(4) A reference to the High Court under this section shall be heard by a bench of two judges of the High Court and, in respect of the reference, the provisions of section 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall apply, so far as may be, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

(5) The High Court upon hearing a reference under this section shall decide the question of law raised by the reference and deliver a judgment thereon specifying the grounds on which the judgment is based and the order of the Tribunal shall stand modified accordingly. The Court shall send a copy of the judgment under the seal of the Court to the Appellate Tribunal.

(6) The cost of any reference to the High Court shall be in the discretion of the Court.

(7) Notwithstanding that a reference has been made to the High Court, the tax shall be payable in accordance with the order of the Appellate Tribunal.

Provided that, if the amount of tax is reduced as a result of the judgment in the reference, and amount of tax found refundable by the High Court, the High Court may on application by a Deputy Commissioner SRB authorized by the Commissioner SRB within thirty days of the receipt of the judgment of the High Court that he intends to seek leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, make an order authorizing the postponement of the refund until the disposal of the appeal by the Supreme Court.

(8) Where recovery of tax has been stayed by the High Court by an order, such order shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months following the day on which it is made unless the reference is decided, or such order is withdrawn by the High Court before the expiry of six months.

(9) Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), shall apply to an application made to the High Court under sub-section (1).

(10) An application under sub-section (1) by a person other than the Deputy Commissioner SRB authorized by the Commissioner SRB shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred rupees.

(11) Notwithstanding anything contained in any provision of this Act, where any reference or appeal was filed with the approval of the Commissioner SRB by an officer of lower rank than the Commissioner SRB, and the reference or appeal is pending before an appellate forum or the Court, such reference or appeal shall always be deemed to have been so filed by the Commissioner SRB.

64. Deposit of sales tax demand while appeal is pending.-- Where in any appeal, the decision or order appealed against relates to any sales tax demanded under this Act, the person who has filed the appeal shall, pending the appeal, deposit the admitted amount of sales tax based on the return filed under section 30 or as may be determined by the Commissioner (Appeals) SRB or the Appellate Tribunal where such return has not been filed.

65. Alternate Dispute Resolution.-- (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Act, or the rules made there under, any registered person aggrieved in connection with any dispute pertaining to:–

- (a) the liability of sales tax against the registered person;
- (b) the extent of waiver of default surcharge and penalty;
- (c) relaxation of any procedural or technical irregularities and condonation of any prescribed time limitation; and
- (d) any other specific relief required to resolve the dispute, may apply to the Board for the appointment of a committee for the resolution of any dispute mentioned in detail in the application.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Board shall not accept an application under sub-section (1) where criminal proceedings have been initiated or where, the Board is of the opinion that the interpretation of a question of law having a larger impact on revenue or on a number of similar cases is involved.

(3) The Board may, after examination of the application of a registered person, appoint a committee within thirty days of receipt of such application, consisting of an officer of the SRB not below the rank of a Deputy Commissioner SRB and a second person from the notified panel consisting of chartered or cost accountants, advocates, representatives of trade bodies or associations, retired officers of the rank of not less than BS-20, retired judges, or any other reputable taxpayers, for the resolution of the dispute.

(4) The committee constituted under sub-section (3) shall examine the issue and may, if it deems fit, conduct an inquiry, seek expert opinions, direct any officer of the SRB or any other person to conduct an audit and shall make recommendations to the Board within ninety days of its constitution in respect of the dispute. If the committee fails to make recommendations within the said period the Board shall dissolve the committee and constitute a new committee which shall decide the matter within a further period of ninety days. If after the expiry of that period the dispute is not resolved the matter shall be taken up by the appropriate forum provided under this Act for decision.

(5) The Board may, on the recommendation of the committee, pass such order, as it may deem appropriate within forty-five days of the receipt of the recommendations of the committee.

(6) The registered person may make payment of sales tax as determined by the Board in its order under sub-section (5), and such order of the Board shall be submitted before the forum, tribunal or the Court where the matter is subjudice for consideration of orders as deemed appropriate.

65A. Government may appoint Ombudsmen or may assign duties and functions of ombudsmen to any officer retired or serving not below the rank of BS-21 officer to act as an ombudsmen with regard to the redressal of grievances of the tax payers or the registered persons for inordinate delays, maladministration within the field offices of Sindh revenue Board for delays, ineptitude or for misconduct, and may advise the Board to adopt corrective measures for implementation of such advice. Government may frame rules in consultation with the SRB for implementation of the provisions.

- (f) where the person is the Federal Government, any individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds on behalf of the Federal Government; or
- (g) where the person is a public international organization, or a foreign government or political sub-division of a foreign government, any individual responsible for accounting for the receipt and payment of moneys or funds in Pakistan on behalf of the organization, government, or political subdivision of the government.
- (h) When any person is expressly or impliedly authorised by a registered person to be his agent for all or any of the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where the Court of Wards, the Administrator General, the Official Trustee, or any receiver or manager appointed by, or under, any order of a Court receives or is entitled to receive income on behalf, or for the benefit of any person, such Court of Wards, Administrator General, Official Trustee, receiver, or manager shall be the agent of the person for the purposes of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in this section, any registered person may expressly or impliedly authorised another person to be his agent for all or any of the purposes this Act.

68. Liability and obligations of agents.-- (1) Every agent of a person shall be responsible for performing any duties or obligations imposed by or under this Act on the person, including the payment of tax.

(2) Subject to sub-section (5) of this section, any tax that, by virtue of subsection (1), is payable by an agent of a registered person shall be recoverable from the agent only to the extent of any assets of the registered person that are in the possession or under the control of the agent.

(3) Every agent of a registered person who pays any tax owing by the registered person shall be entitled to recover the amount so paid from the registered person or to retain the amount so paid out of any moneys of the registered person that are in the agent's possession or under the agent's control.

(4) Any agent, or any person who apprehends that he may be assessed as an agent, may retain out of any money payable by him to the person on whose behalf he is liable to pay tax (hereinafter in this section referred to as the "principal"), a sum equal to his estimated liability under this Act, and in the event of disagreement between the principal and such an agent or a person as to the amount to be so retained, such agent or person may obtain from the Commissioner SRB a certificate stating the amount to be so retained pending final determination of the tax liability, and the certificate so obtained shall be his authority for retaining that amount.

(5) Every agent shall be personally liable for the payment of any tax due by the agent if, while the amount remains unpaid, the agent--

- (a) alienates, charges or disposes of any moneys received or accrued in respect of which the tax is payable; or
- (b) disposes of or parts with any moneys or funds belonging to the registered person that is in the possession of the agent or which comes to the agent after the tax is payable, if such tax could legally have been paid from or out of such moneys or funds.

(6) Nothing in this section shall relieve any person from performing any duties imposed by or under this Act on the person which the agent of the person has failed to perform.

69. Liability of the registered person for the acts of his agent.-- A registered person shall be responsible for any and all acts done by his agent.

70. Appearance by authorised representative.-- A registered person required to appear before the Appellate Tribunal or an officer of the SRB in connection with any proceedings under this Act may, in writing, authorise any person having such qualification as may be prescribed in the rules to represent him or appear on his behalf.

71. E-intermediaries to be appointed.-- (1) Subject to such conditions, limitations and restrictions, the Board may, by a notification in the official Gazette, appoint a person to electronically file returns under Chapter IV and such other documents electronically, as may be prescribed from time to time, on behalf of a registered person.

(2) A registered person may authorize an e-intermediary to electronically file returns or any other documents on his behalf, as specified in sub-section (1).

(3) The return or such other documents filed by an e-intermediary on behalf of a registered person shall be deemed to have been filed by that registered person.

(4) Where this Act requires anything to be done by a registered person and if such thing is done by an e-intermediary authorized by the registered person under sub-section (2), unless the contrary is proved, such thing shall be deemed to have been done with the knowledge and consent of the registered person so that in any proceedings under this Act, the registered person shall be liable as if the thing has been done by him.

(5) Where an e-intermediary, authorized by a registered person under subsection (2) to act on his behalf, knowingly or willfully submits false or incorrect information or document or declaration with an intent to avoid payment of tax due or any part thereof, such e-intermediary shall be jointly and severally responsible for recovery of the amount of tax short paid as a result of such incorrect or false information or document or declaration, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him under the relevant provisions of the law.

(6) The Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, prescribe rules for the conduct and transaction of business of e- intermediaries, including their appointment, suspension and cancellation of appointment, subject to such conditions as specified therein.
