

No new tax to be introduced in budget in next financial year: Murad

6th April,2018

Chief Minister Sindh Syed Murad Ali Shah has said that provincial government is pursuing a progressive tax policy and no new tax will be introduced in the budget in the next financial year.

He was talking to Chairman Sindh Revenue Board Khalid Mahmood in Karachi on Thursday.

He urged the SRB employees to employ all resources and put in their best efforts to achieve revenue target of one hundred billion rupees.
